AFRICAN AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF WESTCHESTER AND ROCKLAND COUNTIES, INC. PUBLISHES FIRST FULL AUDIT

The African American Chamber of Commerce of Westchester and Rockland Counties, Inc. has conducted its first full audit for the organization. The finding of the audit will be available on the Chamber's website.

The independent audit was conducted by Vernon J. Key, CPA located at 67-47 161st Street, Flushing, NY 11365.

"The African American Chamber of Commerce (Chamber) is designed to meet the needs of our community. It is a voluntary organization of individuals and businesses who band together to advance the commercial, financial, industrial and civic interests of the community. It is a civic clearinghouse, a public relations counselor as well as a legislative representative at the local, state and national levels of government. The Chamber is an information bureau and a research/promotion medium."

"The Chamber was created as an advocate for local African American-owned businesses. The Chamber promotes economic development and business opportunities for its members. Investment in the Chamber is important to the economic development of this entire State. Membership in the Chamber provides benefits designed to meet business needs."

"The audit will give our partners and potential partner an opportunity to examine the organization and its growth, as they consider impending investment in the Chamber, stated Robin L. Douglas the Chamber's President/CEO and founder."

The AACCW, Inc. was established June 28, 1996 as an independent not-for-profit agency, to aid, counsel and protect the interests of African American businesses. The mission is to preserve competitive enterprise and to maintain and strengthen the overall economy of Westchester and Rockland Counties.

To join the Chamber or for more information, call 914-699-4749 or log on to www.AACCNYS.org.
