THE ANNUAL WESTCHESTER & ROCKLAND

AFRICAN AMERICAN BOOK FESTIVAL

May 14 - 15, 2010

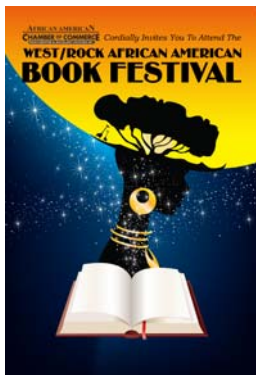

Dear Vendors:

The African American Chamber of Commerce presents the ANNUAL WESTCHESTER & ROCKLAND AFRICAN AMERICAN BOOK FESTIVAL in the Lower Hudson Valley. The WESTCHESTER & ROCKLAND AFRICAN AMERICAN BOOK FESTIVAL, is designed to:

- To broaden access for family literacy and literature awareness by putting more books into more readers hands, literature programs, and parent-support events.
- To help develop and identify new reader and youth markets
- To develop relationships with publishers and literacy advocates throughout the world.
- To expand branding and affinity opportunities to the African American and Latino family market.
- To expand and institutionalize the West/Rock Book Festival as world-class literature and literacy events.
- In tandem with its literacy mission, the Book Fair has actively supported the community.
- Affiliates with various community organizations, to more widely promote literacy.

We look forward to seeing you at the 2010 West/Rock African American Book Festival.

Enclosed is a copy of the vendor application. For additional information about the Festival, please visit us online at www.aaccnys.org
